CURRICULAR ASPECTS
1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation
1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process
The college belongs to the Department of Higher Education, Govt. of Chhattisgarh. College follows the prescribed curriculum of Sant Gahira Guru Vishwavidyalaya, Sarguja, Ambikapur of Chhattisgarh state. The college doesn't have any right to amend the prescribed curriculum. However, for the effective delivery of the curriculum, faculty members of the college proposed monthly lesson plans for each paper and maintain their daily diary in which the day-to-day execution of the teaching plan is mentioned by faculties. Finally, the diary is inspected by the principal at the end of the month and suggests required actions. Project work, seminars, etc were scheduled for the students. Moreover, the college also releases an academic calendar for college activities that were based on the prescribed academic calendar of the Department of Higher Education and the college organizes internal examinations, unit tests, and half-yearly exams. On the basis of the above evaluation, advanced learners and slow learners are scrutinized. For slow learners, remedial classes are carried out. The College library provides study material for students. At the end of every academic year, IQAC collects feedback on courses, programs & teaching from all the stakeholders, it is then analyzed and takes necessary action for further improvement.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Internal assessment in the institute is robust and transparent. The institute follows the rules and regulations of the parent university for the internal evaluation process of theory and practical papers.

During lectures, students are made aware of the annual examination pattern of the university and also of the internal evaluation mechanism consisting of unit tests, quarterly examinations, half-yearly examinations, and pre-final examinations. Student feedback has also been collected to evaluate the quality of teaching-learning. These exams are held in a formal manner to make the student familiar with the university exams. Records of students are kept by the concerned subject teacher. The students are made aware of the shortcomings and given suggestions to refine their answers and perform better in future annual examinations. For practical examination, evaluation is done with transparency based on different parameters like practical records, teacher's assessment, performance, and viva voice.

According to the university, for PG students internal assessment is of 30 marks and the end-semester examination is of 70 marks. In order to ensure transparency in internal assessment the system of internal assessment is communicated to students in time. All attendance records in internal examinations and summaries of marks are properly maintained by teachers for academic audit.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

In the case of internal examination, an examination-related timetable is decided by the institution and displayed on the notice board. To ensure proper conduct of examination one invigilator is assigned in each exam room. If the examinee has any grievance arising during the process of internal evaluation one is free to discuss it with the subject teacher. The matter is resolved based on academic facts. If a student is not able to appear in an exam due to medical or any other genuine reason, the internal examination is conducted for that student as per norms, provided he submits an application to the subject teacher. The grievances of the students related to assessment are made clear by showing his/her performance in the answer sheet.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

POs, PSOs, and COs, would be measured in terms of the academic performance of students. It has been observed that the strength of the students has increased by 28.38% in 2021-22 as compared to 2020-21. The passing percentage is still 98.88%.

Attainment of COs, POs, and PSOs are measured through direct and indirect methods. A continuous and comprehensive evaluation is done regularly to assess the attainment of learning outcomes. Class tests, group discussions, seminar presentations, home assignments, course-based project work, etc are integral parts of the evaluation and assessment mechanism, which are followed by the review and analysis of students' performance. It helped in the formulation of a strategy for further improvement. The behavioral outcome of the students is assessed through co-curricular activities also. Semester exams for the courses having semester patterns and annual exams for the courses having annual patterns are conducted. The attainment of COs and POs and PSOs is reflected in the final results of students after the completion of their programs.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The college strives to exert all its resources to mold, motivate, and empower youth from underprivileged sections of society, sc/st, and minorities to be better individuals and human beings and groom them to contribute constructively toward achieving the national goal by upholding the values of secularism, social commitment, and global harmony.

MISSION:

- To provide quality affordable education to all students, regardless of caste, religion, or socioeconomic status.
- To maintain a high academic quality in a comfortable environment through innovation/effective teaching-learning methods.
- To upgrade the students into civilized citizens for the betterment of society.
- To encourage scientific skills and academic brilliance in this tribal area by creating a learner-friendly environment.

VISION: Empowering common rural/ tribal students through high-quality education so that they can address global issues in a cost-efficient manner.

Governance: The principal is the sole authority of the college as far as academic, accounts, and co-curricular, activities are concerned. Educationists, social activists, industrialists, non-teaching staff, and students get representation in the key decision-making bodies of the institution. The governing body makes the key policy/decisions and considers important proposals for the development of the institution. The governing body of the institution makes decisions regarding important issues by resolving them within time bound period.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

According to the provisions of the Department of Higher Education, Govt of Chhattisgarh norms, the college principal constitutes various committees and members every year and the principal is the chairman of each committee. In our college, each activity takes place through the meeting of the respective committee. The committee has operational and performs its work under the rule and regulations of the government. The supervised academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular activity was carried out by the principal with the help of different committees. The progress is monitored and corrective measures are taken. The different committee of the college and the IQAC includes members from the teaching staff, non-teaching staff, and students. The hierarchy of the committee is maintained by rules and regulations. Every stakeholder of the college teaching, non-teaching staff, students and community representative takes part in the key decision. Meetings of different committees are arranged on a regular basis to discuss the various affairs of the college. The work of the college administration is decentralized and many subcommittees are formed at the beginning of the academic year to support the system. Decentralized and participatory management may resemble the following: The admission committee arranges the admission of the college. The examination committee ensures the smooth and fair arrangement of the seasonal and semester examinations. The IQAC has been taking initiatives for the improvement of the academic section and organizing the efforts of the departments for an effective teaching-learning system.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The college strictly follows the UGC Regulations on PBAS for all staff. The principal of the college has collected all filled PBAS forms and sent them to the Department of Higher Education, Chhattisgarh for evaluation. Along with the PBAS form the principal of the college also sent a CR report for each staff member. All non-teaching staff are also assessed through annual confidential reports and annual performance appraisals. The various parameters for staff members are assessed under different categories i.e. character and habits, departmental abilities, capacity to do hard work, discipline, reliability, cooperation with superiors, subordinates, colleagues, students, and the public, and technical abilities. The annual confidential report and the PBAS have significantly helped in the evaluation of the performance of employees, in motivating them, analyzing their strengths and weaknesses, and ensuring better performance in terms of the development of the college.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

The IQAC of the college works towards improving and maintaining the quality of education, identifying and suggesting new ways of using teaching aids, developing suitable infrastructure, and offering suggestions for the new self-finance courses. IQAC is an effective and efficient internal coordinating and monitoring mechanism. The IQAC plays a vital role in maintaining and enhancing the quality of the college and suggests quality enhancement measures to be adopted. The IQAC meets every quarterly to plan, direct, implement and evaluate the teaching, research, and publication activities in the college. The sub-committees dealing with various activities and departments implement the IQAC guidelines and report the feedback. Significant improvements in quality have been made by institutionalizing the following IQAC initiatives:

- Academic Performance
- Student Skills Development
- Research and Development

For monitoring/ mentoring academic and administrative activities inspections are carried out periodically to assess the quality of academics which involve:

- Review of healthy academic practices
- Review of departmental facilities

- Facilitate implementation of innovative methods
